Summer Events Calendar- July 2010 Programs

Brooklyn, New York, July 1, 2010 – Circuit Productions, Inc. kicks off its annual free summer concerts with its 2010 Tap and Jazz Masters – Tap, Jazz and All that Blues Series. The series will be presented at sites throughout the city including Central Park's Harlem Meer, the YMCA of Greater New York at sites in Brooklyn and the Bronx, and the Andrew Heighskell Braille and Talking Books Center at New York Public Library. All shows will be free to the public. The series pays tribute to the legendary artists and seminal artists who created America's jazz and urban blues. Information on some of these programs is as follows:

Come hear the Harlem Blues & Jazz Band - the world's most authentic swing band. It stars 6 veteran jazz and blues musicians, whose roots reach to the classic period of the 20's and the 30's. Some of these "originals" actually "jumped" at the Woodside and "stomped" at the Savoy with Duke Ellington, Cab Calloway, Count Basie, Lionel Hampton, "Fats" Waller, Louis Armstrong, and other jazz greats. On tour since 1976, the group has been called "a national treasure."

About Circuit Productions, Inc.

Circuit Productions, Inc. was founded by Susan Goldbetter in 1986 as a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion, production and preservation of the uniquely American art forms of jazz and tap dance. Our mission is to inspire, entertain and educate underserved audiences in New York through performances, public classes, workshops, and arts education programs featuring senior artists of color who are living legends of the city's rich tap and jazz history. Annually, Circuit provides booking and management services for senior and emerging artists; placing performers in museums, libraries, community-based organizations, local colleges, public schools, and hospitals.

Funding was made possible with public funds to Circuit Productions, Inc. from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, in partnership with the New York City Council and the New York State Council on the Arts, a State Agency.
